IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.13793 of 2008
NANDELAL SINGH
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR

05/ 20.08.2008 Heard.

The petitioner is the father-in-law of the deceased, who was allegedly killed for not bringing Rs.50,000/- in cash as additional dowry. The husband is in custody.

By making reference to some paragraph of the case diary, it has been pointed out that the man, who was said to have given information about the occurrence to the informant has been examined in paragraph 26 of the same and he has stated that he never informed the informant and that as a matter of fact, the deceased died of diarrhoea. This statement has been supported by many persons.
